

INVITATION TO PARTICIPATE IN ARGILLÀ ARGENTONA 2018
DEADLINE OF APPLICATION: MARCH 31

The town of Argentona, near Barcelona, Spain, is going to organize the ARGILLÀ ARGENTONA - INTERNATIONAL CERAMIC FAIR next 6th, 7th and 8th July. This fair is linked to the “sister” fairs of Aubagne (France) and Faenza (Italy). Selected participants of these twin ceramic fairs have priority to be admitted in Argillà Argentona.

It is an open air market fair of traditional pottery and artistic ceramics, with a long tradition. It is one of most important ceramic fairs in Spain. Last year it was visited for about 30.000 people from Barcelona, Catalonia and Spain. Many cultural activities around ceramics are organized: exhibitions of contemporary ceramics, ceramic workshops, raku firing, pottery demonstrations, etc.

Dates: 6th, 7th and 8th July 2017

Opening hours: 10 am to 10 pm (with a pause between 2 and 5 pm. for lunch).

All participants are provided with a great umbrella, a “grille” for hanging ceramic pieces and a table of 2.5 x 1m, depending on the demand of each participant in the application form. Alternatively, you can bring your own tent or structure.

About the accommodation, participants should resolve this issue on their own, although there is the possibility of staying at cheap price in some family houses in Argentona (bed and breakfast) or free in a camping area. The organizers can make the contact between participant and the owners of the houses.

Registration fees:

- 6m x 2m 200.00 € (fair services) + € 34.05 (taxes).

- 3m x 2m 100.00 € (fair services) + € 17.03 (taxes).

The deadline is 31th March. Please, send your inscription form to: crisrina@museucantir.org

We therefore expect a response to the invitation. If the answer is positive, we will contact you again to confirm details of your participation.

Argentona, 23rd January 2017